

Für Elise

Ludwig van Beethoven
Hockey Stick Notation by Thomas Führinger
August 2016

The main sheet music for 'Für Elise' is presented in four systems, each consisting of four staves (numbered 2, 3, 4, 5 from bottom to top). The notation uses black dots for notes and stems with flags to indicate fingerings. Red arrows indicate phrasing and breath marks. The first system includes a red arrow pointing up and to the right. The second system includes a red arrow pointing down and to the right. The third system includes a red arrow pointing down and to the right. The fourth system includes a red arrow pointing down and to the right. Below the fourth system, a single staff shows the notes C, D, E, F, G, A, B with a yellow dashed line indicating a melodic line.

Alternative: 3 lines (better readable, less compact)

The alternative sheet music for 'Für Elise' is presented in two systems, each consisting of three staves (numbered 2, 3, 4 from bottom to top). The notation uses black dots for notes and stems with flags to indicate fingerings. Red arrows indicate phrasing and breath marks. The first system includes a red arrow pointing down and to the right. The second system includes a red arrow pointing down and to the right. Below the second system, a single staff shows the notes C, D, E, F, G, A, B with a yellow dashed line indicating a melodic line.